

direct-injection burner (for analytical flame spectroscopy)

A burner in which oxidant and fuel emerge from separate ports and are mixed above the burner orifices through their turbulent motion.

Source:

Orange Book, p. 165