exchange extraction

An extraction operation or process in which a metal from one phase is exchanged with the equivalent amount of a second metal from the other phase.

Notes:
1. This term may be used in connection with any step (e.g. loading, scrubbing or stripping in a process).
2. This applies also to organic or molecular species.

See also: crowding

Source: