

continuous operation

in analysis

The operation of an analytical instrument in such a way that no analytical procedure needs to be completed on any sample before the next procedure can be started.

Source:

PAC, 1989, 61, 1657 (Nomenclature for automated and mechanised analysis (Recommendations 1989)) on page 1661