

dead time correction

in radioanalytical chemistry

Correction to be applied to the observed number of pulses in order to take into account the number of pulses lost during the resolving or dead time.

Source:

PAC, 1994, 66, 2513 (Nomenclature for radioanalytical chemistry (IUPAC Recommendations 1994)) on page 2518