

derived kind of quantity

A kind of quantity characterized by an equation between base kinds of quantities, e.g.
mass concentration = mass (length)⁻³.

Source:

PAC, 1979, 51, 2451 (Quantities and units in clinical chemistry) on page 2460