

instrumental indication (for a precision balance)

The observed deflection or rest point multiplied by the value of the division for the load in question.

Source:

Orange Book, p. 36