micellar mass

The term usually refers to a neutral micelle and therefore includes an equivalent amount of counter-ions with the surfactant ions.

Source:
PAC, 1972, 31, 577 (Manual of Symbols and Terminology for Physicochemical Quantities and Units, Appendix II: Definitions, Terminology and Symbols in Colloid and Surface Chemistry) on page 612