

shielding constant,  $\sigma$

In NMR the difference between the external magnetic flux density and the local magnetic flux density at a resonating nucleus affected by the neighbouring electrons divided by the external flux density,  $\sigma = \frac{B_0 - B}{B_0}$ .

Source:

Green Book, 2nd ed., p. 25