

titration error

The difference in the amount of titrant, or the corresponding difference in the amount of substance being titrated, represented by the expression: (end-point value - equivalence-point value).

Source:

Orange Book, p. 48